Special Collections

The University of Central Florida Libraries Special Collections and University Archives holds materials including rare books, primary source documents, photographs, and art. The collection covers a wide variety of topics with strengths in local history, Florida, the West Indies, travel and tourism, social movements, space and technology, and book arts. For more information on the Special Collections and University Archives, please visit our website at <http://library.ucf.edu/SpecialCollections/>.

Part of the mission of Special Collections and University Archives is to serve as an instructional resource for University Faculty. The Special Collections staff is happy to work with instructors to integrate primary source research and Special Collections materials into their curricula and encourages class visits. Instruction sessions can be tailored to both undergraduate and graduate levels.

Instruction sessions can focus on a specific collection or topic or cover broad research methodology such as primary source and archives research. Classes that have used Special Collections include topics in areas of History, Political Theory, Research Methods, Art, Anthropology, Attraction Design, Type & Design and Artist Book.

To schedule a class visit, please contact Dannie Helm, Senior Archivist at 407-823-2576 or nhelm@mail.ucf.edu.

PsycArticles

PsycArticles is a collection of approximately 50 on-line, full text journals, all of which are indexed in PsycInfo. Because it is a subset of what can be found in PsycInfo, it should be searched only when one wants a quick look at a topic. Any in-depth research project should begin with a search of PsycInfo.

To access PsycArticles and/or PsycInfo refer to the Libraries' Database Listing found on the home page: <http://library.ucf.edu>.
